Wednesday of the
First Week of Advent

Good Morning!

We celebrate Saint Francis Xavier. We read Isaiah 25:6-10, Psalm 23, and Matthew 15:29-37. Where do you see God? Where can you find God? It is on the mountain of the Lord that the Lord will provide for all peoples. Jesus draws a crowd. Many came with different needs, and Jesus cured them. Not only did Jesus cure them, but Jesus fed the crowd. Food is an essential element in our readings. God provides for us in many ways. Jesus multiplied the loaves and the fishes. It only takes us to release the little we have to allow Jesus to multiply and return it to us so that we can serve many in His name. Dive deeper into Advent today by thanking God for his wondrous works and reflecting on what you might do with the little you have so that others will benefit from God's love.

Peace,
