

Monday, April 10, 2023
Easter Monday

St. OLAF
Catholic Church
215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Blessed Easter to you. We read Acts 2:14, 22-33, Psalm 16, and Matthew 28:8-15. I am tired but I know that the call to go to Galilee is strong. Jesus told Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee and there they will see me." Galilee is where we are at. We need to continue to spread the news that Jesus is Risen, alleluia. We do so in our words, our actions, and our love. We know how good God is. We know the truth. We are called to live the truth with joy and appreciation. May you find your Galilee where you will encounter Jesus and be renewed in the Holy Spirit.

Peace,
RevKev

<http://www.bible.usccb.org>: "Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope, alleluia!"
