Feast of Saint Stephen – the First Martyr
Monday of Christmas Week

Good Morning!

Merry Christmas! We celebrate Saint Stephen, First Martyr. We read Acts 6:8-10; 7:54-59, Psalm 31, and Matthew 10:17-22. As we celebrate the Christmas season our readings take us to defend the faith. We are challenged each day to live in the love that Jesus brings to us, to share with others, and to love God wholly. When we do so, some may not like it, yet are we given what we need to keep moving forward in the faith. God is with us, Emmanuel will be with us always and we are strengthened and grateful for God's love. Continue to celebrate the Savior in the days ahead. May peace be in your heart.

Peace,
RevKev
