

Tuesday, January 12, 2021:
Tuesday in the First week of Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we read from Hebrews 2:5-12, Psalm 8, and Mark 1:21-28. How have you come to know Jesus? The people were astonished at his teaching and were amazed as he expelled a demon from a man in the synagogue. Jesus' fame spread throughout the region of Galilee and this was just the beginning. What have you heard? What draws your attention? We are challenged to meet Jesus and welcome Jesus into our bubble, inner circle, and to listen to him, get to know who he really is. When we do so, we realize his words are true and Jesus' life and death show us Jesus' love for us. Jesus, "for whom and through whom all things exist", walks with us, teaches us and when we listen, we take Jesus in.

Peace,
RevKev

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/011221.cfm>