Good morning and Merry Christmastime!

We celebrate the Holy Name of Jesus. We read 1 John 2:29-3:6, Psalm 98, and John 1:29-34. John proclaims, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." John knew Jesus because the Spirit descended upon him and remained with him. Jesus, who takes away the sins of the world, walks with us. Hopefully, we recognize him, as we try to act in righteousness as we respect and love ourselves and others, trying not to fall into sin. Do we recognize that we are God's children now? It is in this hope that we live our lives in holiness. We have been baptized with the Holy Spirit. We find hope in the name of Jesus and say and do all in that great hope.

Peace,

RevKev
