Good morning and Merry Christmastime!

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord today we conclude our Christmas season. May you have received the blessings of a visit from the Magi and the light of Jesus Christ that we are called to bring to every nation. We read Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 or Acts 10:34-38, Psalm 29, and Mark 1:7-11. Jesus is made known through his baptism. He is introduced as God's beloved Son by a voice from the heavens. Jesus went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for he had been anointed with the Holy Spirit and power. We have many wonders ahead of us in Jesus Christ! We must allow God to grasp our hands and lead us as we bring a light for all nations. We will be blessed with peace, our eyes will be opened and we will be released from darkness. Be blessed as we conclude our Christmas season and return to Ordinary Time. You carry a light for the nations, how will you let it shine?

Peace,

I will be offline for two weeks as I take some time away from work for a long winter's nap. May God bless you and keep you, and until we meet again, hold you in the palm of his hand.

"The Lord will bless his people with peace."
