

Thursday, January 25, 2024
Thursday of the
Third Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate the Conversion of Saint Paul. We read Acts 22:3-16 or Acts 9:1-22, Psalm 117, or Mark 16:15-18. As we recognize who God calls into the life of faith, we recognize that each of us is called to, "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." As we celebrate Paul's conversion and remember the first followers of Jesus Christ, we know that even with our faults, we can bring the Gospel with us and proclaim it through actions, words, and sharing God's love for us with others. It is not promised to be easy but in faith, we can do so every day of our lives. Pray for those who continue to be persecuted and for those who persecute Christians throughout the world. We pray for the conversion of many who will come to know Jesus Christ in their hearts and the many who carry the "Good News" with them, fulfilling the mission for which Jesus sent us.

Peace,

RevKev

"Go out to all the world and tell the Good News."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>