

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Tuesday, January 31, 2023
Tuesday of the Fourth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We celebrate Saint John Bosco. We read Hebrews 12:1-4, Psalm 22, and Mark 5:21-43. Jesus is moving ahead quickly. Jesus has now crossed again in the boat to the other side. Many are waiting for him, Jairus, a synagogue official approaches seeking healing for his daughter at home dying. A woman with a hemorrhage for twelve years reaches out to touch Jesus' cloak and is healed. Jesus' compassion reaches many. When Jairus' daughter is healed Jesus gave strict orders that no one should know this and said she should be given something to eat. Again, why would Jesus give this strict order? When we take Jesus' hand and follow, we encounter daily many healings and miracles that happen around us. Paul reminds us not to grow weary and lose heart, Jesus is with us. Our faith opens our eyes and hearts to see the need that surrounds us. With Jesus' help, are you willing to continue his work?

Peace,
RevKev

<http://www.bible.usccb.org>: "They will praise you, Lord, who long for you."