Good morning!

Happy February! We read Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15, Psalm 103, and Mark 6:1-6. We can constantly learn new ways from the Lord. When we become "settled" in our ways and in faith, perhaps we become like the people of Nazareth in today's gospel. A little discipline does not hurt, a little learning every day allows our fruit to continue to grow. Trials open our eyes, discipline allows us to learn from those trials. We read in Hebrews: "Strive for peace with everyone, and for that holiness without which no one will know the Lord. See to it that no one be deprived of the grace of God, that no bitter root spring up and cause trouble, through which many may become defiled." Let peace begin with me and let this be the moment now. May many see the Lord through you today!

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord's kindness is everlasting to those who fear him."
