Friday of the Fourth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Blaise and Saint Ansgar. We read Hebrews 13:1-8, Psalm 27, and Mark 6:14-29. How far will you go in your walk with Jesus? John the Baptist gave his life because he dared to speak the truth. Herod was comforted that John may have come back to life in Jesus, knowing well his guilt for having him beheaded. Have you entertained angels? Are you happy with what you have? Are you mindful of prisoners and the ill-treated? Are you faithful? Why do we remain so? Because we know the love of God and the calls we have received. The Lord is our light and our salvation, hide not but step up today and be blessed.

Peace,
RevKev
