

Monday, February 5, 2024
Monday of the Fifth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Agatha. We read 1 Kings 8:1-7, 9-13, Psalm 132, and Mark 6:53-56. We have many sacred places. Solomon built a temple for the Lord to dwell in. We know that the Holy Spirit dwells in us yet we need those physical sacred places that we can go to to leave the outside world behind and commune with the sacred. Many had heard of Jesus and the power of healing he bestowed. Many sick were brought to him with the hopes of simply touching his tassel so they could be healed. We too need to reach out to Jesus, whether that be in prayer, the Eucharist, or embracing others. Healing can take many forms. What is the healing you may need today? Reach out and allow Jesus to touch you. Find that sacred space in your life to be renewed.

Peace,

RevKev

"Lord, go up to the place of your rest!"

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>