Tuesday of the Fifth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Paul Miki and Companions and Saint Dorothy. We read 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30, Psalm 84, and Mark 7:1-13. Solomon, understanding that nothing can contain God, offers prayers, thanksgiving, and seeks pardon. God exists in the midst of all of creation. Jesus challenges the Pharisees with some scribes who place more importance on human traditions and precepts rather than Godly ways. If our human traditions are done with respect and do not cause division, a better-than-thou attitude, or lead to arguments, they are honored correctly and maintain us as a happy family. Do we honor God by seeing everything as good? Do we see the whole world as God's temple and respect it?

Peace,

"How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord, mighty God!"
