Monday of the Sixth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read James 1:1-11, Psalm 119, and Mark 8:11-13. If you lack wisdom in your life, we are told we can ask God "who gives generously and ungrudgingly." Wow, we will be storming the heavens today in prayer asking for wisdom. Jesus challenges the Pharisees who want to argue with him, seeking a sign. Frustrated, Jesus left them and went to the other shore. When we encounter various trials and our faith is tested, perseverance begets us. When we persevere, we move toward perfection and completion. Our afflictions make us stronger knowing God is with us. As we prepare to enter into Lent, where will you find joy?

Peace,

RevKev

"Be kind to me, Lord, and I shall live."
