Wednesday, February 14, 2024 Ash Wednesday

Good morning!

We celebrate Ash Wednesday as we enter into our Lenten journey. We also celebrate Saint Valentine and Saints Cyril and Methodius. We read Joel 2:12-18, Psalm 51, 2 Corinthians 5:20-6:2, and Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18. "Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." These forty days ahead of us invite us into prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Our readings guide us as to how we can do so. We participate individually yet collectively because collectively we journey together recognizing the rendering that needs to be done universally, which starts in our hearts. May God bless you today and always, filling you with the love of Jesus in every aspect of your lives, and may you share that love freely with others.

Peace,

RevKev
