Monday of the Second Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Daniel 9:4-10, Psalm 79, and Luke 6:36-38. Week two of Lent is here. We know of God's compassion and forgiveness. Daniel spells it out rather clearly. How can we turn away from God by rebelling against him? Jesus reiterates how merciful God is and invites us to be the same. Jesus invites us to stop judging and condemning and to forgive. For as we do so, so will we be! What a gift it is from God to be forgiven and now we are called to forgive in the same way. As we give, we will be given. The challenge always comes, "For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Yesterday's gospel shared the voice coming from the cloud saying, "This is my beloved Son, listen to him." Maybe today would be a good day to do so. "Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life."

Peace,

RevKev

"Lord, do not deal with us according to our sins."
