Tuesday of the Second Week of Lent

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Perpetua and Saint Felicity. We read Isaiah 1:10, 16-20, Psalm 50, and Matthew 23:1-12. We are called to be servants. By being servants, we put into practice what Jesus teaches us. Jesus calls out the Pharisees and the scribes who preach but do not practice. All their works are performed to be seen. Practice what you believe, and be honest with yourself, then others will believe in you. When we set things right, the Lord says, "Though your sins be like scarlet, they become white as snow, though they be crimson red, they become white as wool." God is with us, willing to create a new heart and give you a new spirit. Can we take time to relate the readings to our lives and come to understand the potential we have?

Peace,

RevKev
