Monday of the Fourth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Isaiah 65:17-21, Psalm 30, and John 4:43-54. Jesus is our source of life and vitality. Jesus renews our spirit and leads us towards wholeness. In Jesus' word, we put out trust because faith teaches us to ask and believe in what we ask for. We await the new heavens and a new earth, trusting that in God's time, this will come. The Lord said, "The things of the past shall not be remembered or come to mind. Instead, there shall always be rejoicing and happiness in what I create." We can be renewed on our Lenten journey and see ahead to the new heavens and a new earth. What part are you to play in portraying the rejoicing and happiness that is to come? Do people see in you this rejoicing and happiness? May you be blessed today in your belief and share with others the gift of life.

Peace,

RevKev

"I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."
