Tuesday of the Fourth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12, Psalm 46, and John 5:1-16. We read there are many levels of healing water. As we wade into the waters of life, we find Jesus waiting for us as we have waited for him. God is our source of life and God is needed for the life of our soul. God provided for us fresh water and trees that provide fruit monthly and leaves used for medicinal purposes. What have we done with this? Our cleansing in the water offers us a fresh new outer look, what does it mean for our interior lives? Jesus says to the man he healed, "Look, you are well; do not sin anymore, so that nothing worse may happen to you." What do these words mean to you? Perhaps, change?

Peace,
RevKev

*"The Lord of hosts is with us;
our stronghold is the God of Jacob."*
