Monday of the Third Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read 2 Kings 5:1-15, Psalm 42, and Luke 4:24-30. Naaman is cured of his leprosy, and Jesus is rejected in his hometown. Sometimes we expect God to work in extraordinary ways when in the ordinary we receive so much more. Sometimes we even miss what God can do for us because we are so caught up in wanting more. Be aware this week of how God calls you in ordinary ways to change and conversion.

Peace,

"Athirst is my soul for the living God. When shall I go and behold the face of God?"
