Wednesday of the Fourth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Isaiah 49:8-15, Psalm 145, and John 5:17-30. The question arises, "How have we heard the word of God and how have we lived the word of God? Our Lenten journey is a great time of self-evaluation. Jesus gives us much to ponder today as we go deeper with Jesus, trying to fully understand his relationship with the Father. Isaiah gives us a great picture of the Lord and how good God is to us, "Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you." God is gracious and all-loving. May we continue to grow in our relationship with Jesus and come to know more profoundly the Father and how the Trinity envelopes in our lives the fullness of God.

Peace,

RevKev
