Thursday of the Fourth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Exodus 32:7-14, Psalm 106, and John 5:31-47. Do we have molten calves? Are we deprived people in this day in age? Many may not think so or if we do, it is because we are selfish. Jesus is not accepted by the Jews as coming in the name of the Father. It is a huge challenge for the leaders to accept what Jesus says. It is understandable, although knowing what we know, do we still accept the words of others over what Jesus has said? In whom have we collectively put our trust? As we walk this Lenten walk, do we realize that "God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life"? Think about it, reflect on it, and if we are ready to listen, how might our lives and world begin to change?

Peace,

RevKev
