Wednesday of the Fourth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Isaiah 49:8-15, Psalm 145, and John 5:17-30. We are in a time of our annual review, our annual self-scrutiny, and self-evaluation to determine to what extent we have professed and lived our faith. Lent allows us time to do so. The Lord speaks through Isaiah to remind us, whoever we are, to make an appearance before the Lord and the Lord will make things right. We have not been forgotten. Jesus is the one we turn to, walk with, embrace, in order to know the Father's love for us. The Holy Spirit leads us along the way. Trust in the Holy Spirit to allow you time for your review, examination, and scrutiny. The hand of God will touch your heart this Lenten Season and lay bare your blessings and gifts, as well as, where change is needed. God is faithful, gracious and merciful. Call upon the Lord in truth and the Lord will lift you up.

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord is gracious and merciful."
