Fifth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62, Psalm 23, and John 8:1-11. We have a long read from Daniel, the story of Susanna. Quite the story and quite the lesson learned. We need to speak up for the innocent, the voiceless, and those who are being taken advantage of. Even though we too may be sinners, the Lord looks into our hearts and knows the truth of our lives. Forgiveness is possible and yes, Jesus says to the woman caught in the act of adultery, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more." We might just say, "But Lord, you know I will sin again!" Why do we think this way? Is not God's grace strong enough for us? The Good Shepherd walks with us, leads us and anoints us. See the conversion that is happening in your life. Bless God who saves those who hope in him.

Peace,

"Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side."
