

Thursday, March 30, 2023
Thursday of the
Fifth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Genesis 17:3-9, Psalm 105, John 8:51-59. "The Lord remembers his covenant forever." God calls Abram, "Abraham," the father of a host of nations. God's covenant with Abraham will last forever. God said to Abraham, "On your part, you and your descendants after you must keep my covenant throughout the ages." Jesus reveals that, "Before Abraham came to be, 'I AM.'" Those words would have been blasphemy in Jesus' day. We too can be challenged. Do we portray our Christian beliefs in all that we do? Do we fall short once in a while? Do we look down upon others who do not believe, yet forget to examine our own ways we contradict the teachings of Jesus? These final days of Lent allow us to trust more deeply in our belief in Jesus Christ as God's revelation to us.

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord remembers his covenant forever."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>