

Friday, March 31, 2023
Friday of the
Fifth Week of Lent

Good morning!

We read Jeremiah 20:10-13, Psalm 18, and John 10:31-42. Jeremiah and Jesus are both threatened. Jeremiah's friends have turned against him. Jeremiah puts his trust in the Lord. Jesus does the work of the Father. The Jews pick up rocks to stone Jesus. They want to stone Jesus because he has blasphemed, not because of his good works. Many people who do not believe continue to do good works. Jesus is revealed as both human and divine. This is troubling to many. They do not know how to comprehend. We too can be challenged on how to comprehend. Our Lenten journey is nearing its end, may we be courageous in situations of opposition to be firm in our faith and preserve living and sharing in the love of Jesus Christ.

Peace,

RevKev

"In my distress I called upon the Lord, and he heard my voice."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>