

Monday, April 3, 2023
Monday of Holy Week

Good morning!

We read Isaiah 42:1-7, Psalm 72, and John 12:1-11. We have been commissioned. Have you a renewed spirit? If the coastland still awaits his teachings, who will deliver them? The Lord is calling, the Lord has put out his hand, will you listen and reach? Will your light shine forth to open the eyes of the blind, bring out prisoners, open doors to dungeons? Even the most menial acts can make a profound difference. The table is set, the visitors are arriving. Many have heard that Jesus will be there, but Lazarus too. They want to see, they await an invitation. Mary brings the perfume, anoints Jesus' feet, Judas remarks, Jesus accepts. Many came to believe because of what Jesus spoke and performed. Who still awaits an invitation? Who needs the light in their life today? Is it you or someone you will meet? Feel the hand of our Lord in yours and follow where he leads.

Peace,
RevKev

"The Lord is my light and my salvation."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>