

Tuesday, April 4, 2023
Tuesday of Holy Week

Good morning!

We read Isaiah 49:1-6, Psalm 71, and John 13:21-33, 36-38. Betrayal, denial, confusion. It is beginning. We have been good so far, now we need to jump in with both feet or walk away. God needs lights for the nations. The Lord, speaking to Isaiah states, "It is too little for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." Trust is so important these days. We will be faced with choices, like Peter and Judas. Where will our faith lead us in these next days? Jesus gave his life for the salvation of all, even his friends who betrayed him. We do not want such betrayals to happen in life but they do. How have you handled them in the past? The menial acts of compassion and kindness you did yesterday are spreading today into the world. Stay with Jesus, know how much Jesus loves you and everyone, even those you may have a difficult time with. Patience, love and endurance are what we need these days.

Peace,

RevKev

"I will sing of your salvation."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>