Friday, April 14, 2023 Easter Friday

Good morning!

We read Acts 4:1-12, Psalm 118, and John 21:1-14. Do we the Church still act in the power of the name of Jesus Christ? Do we know that the stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone? Peter and John are detained yet five thousand came to believe. Jesus calls the disciples to cast their nets after a long night of nothing and drag to shore a net full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. The disciples recognize the risen Lord, who has prepared breakfast for them. Jesus cares about us in every aspect of life. Even the little things, Jesus pays attention. Life's challenges are always with us, good and not so good yet we find hope in Jesus. Jesus is around and like the disciples, we may not recognize him right away. Jesus wants to provide for us and feed us physically and spiritually. As we near the end of the Octave of Easter, enjoy breakfast with Jesus this weekend.

Peace,

RevKev
