

Friday, April 28, 2023
Friday of the
Third Week of Easter

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Peter Chanel and Saint Louis Mary de Montfort. We read Acts 9:1-20, Psalm 117, and John 6:52-59. Jesus' teaching in the synagogue is causing a stir. We understand why. It is a challenge to come to terms with eating the "Flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood." Unless we do so, we do not have life within us. Many questioned Jesus and challenged him. Saul, one of those persecuting Christians, people who belonged to the "Way", has a conversion when Jesus speaks to him, asking, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" His story continues. Our eyes have been opened, our minds have been instructed, now how will your life be lived? We too may have to suffer because of the name of Jesus Christ but we do so with love and strength. Our journeys continue and we find strength in the Body and Blood of Jesus. How do you tell your story and the Good News of Jesus Christ?

Peace,

RevKev

"Go out to all the world and tell the Good News, alleluia!"

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>