Tuesday of the Fourth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Athanasius. We read Acts 11:19-26, Psalm 87, and John 10:22-30. It was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians. Christians are those who believe in Jesus Christ. How is this defined? Do we fit in the definition? It is not as easy as we might think to follow what we are called. Many wanted to know if Jesus was the Christ. They said, "Tell us plainly." Jesus responded, "I told you and you did not believe. The works I do in my Father's name testify to me." Those who do believe have listened, have followed, and have opened themselves to be known by Jesus. It seems right, it is right and it takes faith to believe. Jesus holds us in his hand and no one can take us away from him. The challenge is to keep growing, to keep learning, and to keep believing.

Peace,

RevKev
