

Wednesday, May 3, 2023
Wednesday of the
Fourth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We celebrate Saints Philip and James, Apostles. We read 1 Corinthians 15:1-8, Psalm 19, and John 14:6-14. Jesus says, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father." Philip says, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough." Jesus says, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." Jesus and the Father are one. When we live believing that Jesus is the way and the truth and the life, then we live in a culture inspired by the Gospel. Developing this culture now would be difficult but not impossible. We have been influenced in many ways, taking many shortcuts in life and buying into living in worldly ways. Yet, we can decide to live our lives with Gospel values, living with dignity and strengthening our communities. Sharing with the community our time, talent, or treasure, looking out for our neighbor, and sharing the love that God has for us is not easy but we find strength and encouragement from the Holy Spirit. Ask in Jesus' name for strength and courage to live in a way that is pleasing to the Lord and to continue to live in a culture inspired by the Gospel.

Peace,

RevKev

"Their message goes out through all the earth, alleluia!"

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>