Monday of the
Fifth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We read Acts 14:5-18, Psalm 115, and John 14:21-26. "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you everything and remind you all that I told you." We accept and receive the Holy Spirit, invoking daily the wisdom, strength, and knowledge we need. Jesus tells us the Holy Spirit will remind us of what Jesus said and teach us more. We love and follow the commandments because we love God and God wants us to love all. The commandments keep us in this gift of love. Paul and Barnabas are true to the Word. They have emptied themselves and are filled with the Word. God's Word is infused in their words and they can see the faith in others and heal where healing is needed. They are not gods but humans carry on where Jesus left off. Jesus gives us the Holy Spirit and when we receive the Holy Spirit we are not shy in sharing God's love and Word with others.

Peace,

RevKev

"Not to us, O Lord, but to your name give the glory, alleluia!"
