Monday of the Sixth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Isidore. We read Acts 16:11-15, Psalm 149, and John 15:26-16:4. We have our ups and downs. Our emotions carry us high and low. We take delight in many things. Jesus informs the disciples, "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me. And you also testify because you have been with me from the beginning." Jesus does not want us to fall away when troubles, challenges, and maybe persecutions come to us. The Advocate will be our strength. Paul and others set sail to Philippi where they met Lydia who the Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what Paul was saying. She and her household were baptized and then offered an invitation of hospitality to Paul and the others. We will encounter good people on our journey as well as those who do not know God or Jesus. We need not be afraid – cautious, yes, but afraid, no. These last days of the Easter Season are preparing us for the mission ahead. Ask in prayer today for an awareness of how this will involve you.

Peace,

RevKev
