Thursday of the
Sixth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint John I. We read Acts 18:1-8, Psalm 98, and John 16:16-20. Paul is challenged and blessed in his time in Corinth. Jesus, in his farewell discourse, recognizes his disciples are questioning what he is saying. Jesus says, "A little while and you will no longer see me, and again a little while later and you will see me." We know that Jesus died, rose from the dead, and now ascends into heaven. His death will shake the disciples, they will grieve and mourn, yet they will experience joy. We know the story, we believe the story and now like Paul, we live the story. Stay on the journey and live what you have been given. The Holy Spirit continues to guide us and strengthen us, be at peace in the midst of life's challenges.

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power, alleluia!"
