Friday of the
Sixth Week of Easter

Good morning!

We read Acts 18:9-18, Psalm 47, and John 16:20-23. Again we have the ups and downs of life. Paul is dragged into court for "introducing people to worship God contrary to the law." Jesus says our mourning and weeping will turn into joy. We wait yet we continue to live. We share the Good News yet we continue to be ignored. Those who listen and follow grow deeper relationships. We have good days and challenging days. Days we want to get up and other where we want to stay in bed. The Holy Spirit guides us and "JOY" will consume us. When we share that joy we balance our lives and offer others the same balance. Hope continues to grow within us. We know of the wonders and possibilities that are before us. Jesus will lead us to them. We can wait and so be renewed.

Peace,

RevKev

"God is king of all the earth, alleluia!"
