Wednesday of the Seventh Week of Easter

Good morning!

We read Acts 20:28-38, Psalm 68, and John 17:11-19. We are consecrated by the Lord to live the mission Jesus has left for us. Paul spoke to the presbyters of the Church of Ephesus, "Keep watch over yourselves and over the whole flock of which the Holy Spirit has appointed you overseers, in which you tend the Church of God that he acquired with his own blood." Jesus desires that we share in his joy. Being consecrated in the truth we know that we are in the world and not of the world and we are sent to live the mission of Jesus Christ. May the Holy Spirit renew and enliven us to continue to live in the truth and carry the truth to others by how we live and speak. "Come Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth."

Peace,

RevKev

"Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth, alleluia!"
