

Thursday, May 7, 2020:
Thursday of the Fourth Week of Easter

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we read from Acts 13:13-25, Psalm 89 and John 13:16-20. After Jesus had washed the feet of his disciples he said, "I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." Paul explains to the children of Israel how Jesus fits into salvation history. What is the story we tell? What are the actions we do? How do we proclaim Jesus in our lives knowing that the one who listens and receives what we say, receives the one we speak of who then reveals the one who sent him? What we say and do in the simplest or most grandeur way, proclaims Jesus Christ and when we know and proclaim Jesus in our lives, we also proclaim the one who sent him. Our lives are important witnesses to the world today. How are you witnessing? Are you a sign of hope or despair? May we reflect today in our words and actions what the washing of the feet of the disciples meant and how we are to carry on the story of salvation in Jesus Christ.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord."