Saturday of the Fourth Week of Easter

Good Morning!

Today we read from Acts 13:44-52, Psalm 98 and John 14:7-14. Again today we hear the disciples asking for clarification. Philip says, "Master, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." Jesus responds, "Whoever sees me has seen the Father." Jesus continues, "Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these. Whatever you ask in my name, I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything of me in my name, I will do it." We ask today in the name of Jesus for healing from CoVid19. In this healing we ask for a change of heart and mind for the way we live our lives. Paul and Barnabas continue to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ and the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. The Jews were filled with jealousy yet the Gentiles listened and were delighted as they glorified the Lord. "The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit" as they were expelled from the town. May we be filled with joy and the Holy Spirit today because we have heard the word of God and believe in Jesus. Let us ask for Jesus for what we need today and believe we will receive an answer. Let us continue to pray for healing in our world from the CoronaVirus and a deeper sense of humanity trusting in the Lord.

Peace,

RevKev
