

Wednesday, May 20, 2020:
Wednesday of the Sixth Week of Easter

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Bernardine of Siena. Our readings come from Acts 17:15, 22-18:1, Psalm 148, and John 16:12-15. Read Paul's exhortation to the Athenians. "God gives us life and breath and everything." We have a desire to seek God, "even perhaps grope for him and find him, though indeed he is not far from any one of us. For 'In him, we live and move and have our being,' as even some of your poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.'" Paul invites people to repentance and when he shared about the resurrection from the dead, people scoffed or were interested but for another time. Jesus has so much to share but realizes we cannot bear it all at once. The Spirit of Truth will guide us to all truth. Throughout our whole lives, we learn and come to know the truth in a deeper way as life experience hands us life education. The "whole" comes from the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. May we live and move and have our being engulfed in the whole today and realize that God is near and directs us to the truth that we find in Jesus.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"Heaven and earth are full of your glory."