Good Morning!

Today we read from Acts 22:30; 23:6-11, Psalm 16 and John 17:20-26. Wow, does Paul throw a wrench into the argument between the Sadducees and the Pharisees. Do you think he knew what he was doing? Of course, he did! Things will become more intense for Paul yet he hears the Lord say, "Take courage. For just as you have borne witness to my cause in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness in Rome." Today Jesus' prayer reaches out to us, "I pray not only for these but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you Father, are one in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me." Jesus calls us a "gift." May we know of the love today that Jesus has for us and the gift Jesus is for us. May we listen to what the Lord speaks to us and please pray for a peaceful means of demonstrations and protests here in Minneapolis. Justice needs to be served but violence and destruction do not bring forth justice. May we strive to be one in the Lord.

Peace,

RevKev
