Friday of the Eighth Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Marcellinus and Saint Peter. We read Sirach 44:1, 9-13, Psalm 149, and Mark 11:11-26. Our faith can move mountains. Our faith carries us through life. Living faith leads to bearing fruit. Prayer leads us to forgive others in order to be forgiven. Prayer gives glory to God. Jesus says, "All that you ask for in prayer, believe that you will receive it and it shall be yours." Our living faith influences our lives and we turn to God for many different reasons. God's covenant remains and when we live a well-lived life we will be remembered. Live in God's grace by forgiving and loving as you are forgiven and loved.

Peace,

RevKev
