Thursday of the
Ninth Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Tobit 6:10-11; 7:1, 9-17; 8:4-9, Psalm 128, and Mark 12:28-34. We read of the beautiful marriage of Tobias and Sarah, the day leading up to the marriage, and the marriage night. Tobias and Sarah rise from the bed and offer prayer to God. One of the scribes asks Jesus, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replies, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." Jesus then adds, "The second is this, You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love goes deep. The love of God spills over in our lives to those we love, to our neighbors, and to strangers along the way. May you see that love bears all things, heals all things, moves all things, and endures all things. Love never fails. May your love for God and your neighbor be strengthened today as you know of God's love for you.

Peace,

RevKev

"Blessed are those who fear the Lord."
