Monday of the Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Romuald. We read 2 Corinthians 6:1-10, Psalm 98, and Matthew 5:38-42. How does the world define you or define what you do? Is that the same as who God created you to be? How easy is it for you to respond to violence with generosity? Jesus' challenge in the gospel states, "Offer no resistance to one who is evil." Jesus' description of this is worth reading. Jesus brings out the gift of the Holy Spirit in each of us and asks us to see how we use them in response to worldly ways. Sing a new song to the Lord today by living as God created you to live.

Peace,
RevKev
