Tuesday of the Eleventh
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read 2 Corinthians 8:1-9, Psalm 146, and Matthew 5:43-48.

Generosity is a great gift to acquire. Paul reminds us, "For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that for your sake he became poor although he was rich, so that by his poverty you might become rich."

Paul seeks the genuineness of our love as he tests the Church of Corinth by the example of the Churches of Macedonia. Jesus takes us another step further and asks us to "love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us." As we try to be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect we look at our life situations and try to make the most of them. Sure we may want something different or wish we had more but to know what we have is sufficient and God will allow us to walk with people in many different situations and be compassionate towards them. Who is it that you may need to pray for whom you have not for a while? Greet all on your paths today, love all, and see God in everyone.

Peace,

RevKev
