

Wednesday, June 21, 2023
Wednesday of the Eleventh
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Aloysius Gonzaga. We read 2 Corinthians 9:6-11, Psalm 112, and Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18. God loves a cheerful giver! How generous have you been this week with your time? How generous have you been to others? Paul reminds us, "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully." Jesus instructs us in ways of almsgiving, prayer, and fasting. How well do you practice these disciplines throughout the year? God knows what and how we do things. We are repaid as God sees fit. When we give generously, we are giving thanksgiving to God. "Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant to you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work." May you be blessed in your life knowing God's generosity to you and your generosity to others. Be a cheerful giver on this first day of summer, the longest day of the year. May you acknowledge the fruits of the Spirit in your life – love, peace, joy, patience – and experience them abundantly.

Peace,

RevKev

"Blessed the one who fears the Lord."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>