Monday of the Twelfth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Genesis 12:1-9, Psalm 33, and Matthew 7:1-5. When was the last time you thought of taking a journey? Have you reflected on journeys of the past? Even thinking of your ancestors and the journeys they made to get you to where you are today? God said to Abram, "Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk; and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." Could you imagine just packing up and going? In my younger days, it would have been an adventure, as I get older, it would be a chore but I would still do it. Doing God's will is not always easy nor is following what Jesus asks of us. We read, "Stop judging, that you may not be judged. For as you judge, so will you be judged, and the measure with which you measure will be measured out to you." We all may have a splinter or wooden beam in our eye, so we need to remove this first before noticing the same in another. Jesus continues to challenge us and make us think. Our journeys with Jesus are never dull and challenge us to grow each day!

Peace,

RevKev
