Friday of the Twelfth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate the First Holy Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church. We read Genesis 17:9-10, 15-22, Psalm 128, and Matthew 8:1-4. Imagine Abram trying to hide back his laughing! "What, I am one hundred years old, and Sarah, ninety? God is faithful to the covenant, even after many years. Jesus heals and maintains the prescribed law of Moses. What we are given is a gift, and we give thanks to God for all. We ask Jesus for what we need, "Lord, if you wish, you can make me clean." Jesus is generous as God is generous. May we recognize how God works in our lives and not give up but laugh once in a while as we share in God's plan and compassion.

Peace,

RevKev

"See how the Lord blesses those who fear him."
