

Tuesday, June 16, 2020:
Tuesday of the Eleventh Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we read from 1 Kings 21:17-29, Psalm 51 and Matthew 5:43-48. Have you ever wondered what your ancestors may have done that affects you today? Ahab, after hearing what the Lord will do to him because of Naboth's death, repents and the Lord relents but says, "Evil will be brought upon his house during the reign of his son." Truly, Jezebel was not a believer nor his son but Ahab had a fear of the Lord. Jesus says we must love our enemies and pray for those who persecute you. Our love must be unconditional for all as God's love is unconditional for all. We are called to love everyone. We may not like them or what they have done but we need to love them. How much does Jesus love you? We must love the same.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned."