

Monday, June 22, 2020:
Monday of the Twelfth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Paulinus of Nola and St. John Fisher and St. Thomas Moore. Our readings come from 2 Kings 17:5-8, 13-15, 18, Psalm 60, and Matthew 7:1-5. Jesus speaks to his disciples and scolds them about judging others. We must look at our own lives first before we can judge others. Jesus says, "Remove the beam from your eye first, then you can see clearly to remove the splinter from your brother's eye." We read what can happen when we leave God behind from 2 Kings. God must always be at the forefront of our lives and when God is, then Jesus' words make sense. May we know where the Lord calls us to change and how recognizing the wooden beam in our own eye, we can help others with their splinter.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"Help us with your right hand, O Lord, and answer us."