

Wednesday, June 24, 2020:
Wednesday of the Twelfth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Our readings come from Isaiah 49:1-6, Psalm 139, Acts 13:22-26 and Luke 1:57-66, 80. Do you know that you are wonderfully made? Really, do you know that you are wonderfully made? And being wonderfully made you were named in your mother's womb and called from birth. Our lives may not appear to be as wonderful as we think they could have been but we are wonderfully made and God has a plan for each of us. The plan may not be elegant, may not have us living the lifestyle we dream of but we know that the hand of God is involved. Where would our lives be without God? John the Baptist was the precursor to Jesus. John was the messenger to bring Jesus to others, what is your mission in life? How do you bring Jesus to others? Knowing that you are wonderfully made and hearing those words, "What then will this child be?", how is your spirit?

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"I will praise you, for I am wonderfully made."

<http://www.usccb.org/>"God upholds his city for ever."